GUESTS

We're glad you're here! Please fill out a connection card that can be found on the seat back in front of you, or scan the QR code and fill out the virtual connection card. Bring that connection card to the Connect-N-Coffee Table after service for a free gift.

My _____ provides peace.
Ruth 3:1-6

Being _____ provides confidence.
Ruth 3:6-13

My character is my _____.
Ruth 3:14

God's provision _____ me.
Ruth 3:15-18

1. In John 10:10, Jesus lets us know 'I have come that they may have life, and have it abundantly (to the full).' What do you think an abundant life looks like? Would you say you are living an abundant life right now? Why/why not?

2. Read Ruth 3:1-6. Being from another culture, do you think Ruth understood the meaning/significance behind everything that Naomi told her to do? Do you think you have to understand everything that God tells you to do in order to obey Him? Why/why not?

3. Read Ruth 2:7-11. Here, Boaz tells Ruth that she is known in the community as 'a woman of excellence.' Do you think you have a reputation as a woman (or man) of excellence? Why/why not?

4. Read Ruth 2:12-18. Here we see Boaz again as a 'guardian redeemer', providing generously for the needs of Ruth/Naomi. As your redeemer, how have you seen God provide for you?

5. Next Steps: Are you struggling to have the faith that God will provide for one or more of your needs? This week, take a moment each day to pray in faith. 'Lord, I believe you are going to provide for every need I have.' Come ready next time to talk about what you experienced.
